MUNICIPAL WATER PLANT.

City Will Take Over New Property October 15—$250,000 Borrowed in Hartford.

It was announced here Monday that the plant and property of the Putnam Water company will be taken over by the city of Putnam on October 15, so two weeks hence Putnam will own a municipal water system. The money to pay for the property is ready to be paid over, the financing having been arranged by Judge Henry of Hartford, one of the counsel for the city during the proceedings that led up to the city getting the plant. The rate at which the loan has been negotiated has not been made public but it is understood to have been a fraction over four percent, and that the $250,000 that has been borrowed comes from Hartford.

The transfer of the property will take place in this city. It will be one of the most important happenings in the history of the city if not the most important, but it will not be marked by any special ceremony, just the signing of necessary papers.

It was said by a city official Monday that the revenue of the company from its business here is about $7,000 a year. Today being the first of a quarter of the year thousands of dollars of this revenue will commence to be paid in to meet rental charges on a salary of $1,300 a month in advance. When the city takes the plant over, all revenue collected for service after October 15 will be turned over to the city.

To all outward appearances there will be no change after the transfer. Those who are charged with the plant in charge. There are now two vacancies in the board of three water commissioners and it is not probable that these vacancies will be filled until the council makes appointments in January. Until that time there probably will not be many developments of interest in regard to the water plant, which the city is pleased to own.

OBITUARY.

Thomas P. Botham. Word was received here Monday of the death Saturday evening in a sanitarium at Stamford, where he has been a patient for several weeks, of Thomas P. Botham, for many years a resident of Putnam. The deceased was past 80 years of age.

He has been a retired business man for a long period, but for years was connected with the firm of C. M. Fletcher & Co., who conducted a shoe manufacturing business in what is known as the Fisher shoe shop. Mr. Botham was at one time a deacon of the Putnam Congregational church. He is survived by his wife, one son, James Botham of Pomfret. The body will arrive in Putnam from Stamford this (Tuesday) noon.

Came Down to Wed Worcester Divorcees. Harry L. Conner, 32, and Josephine R. Young, 30, both of Worcester, came here Monday, and were united in marriage by Attorney Mahlon H. Giesler, acting as justice of the peace. PETROSKI CO.'S GOOD WORK. Has Built 16,000 Feet of Sewer Within Contract Time.

The Petroski company of Hartford, which has had a force of men at work here building sewers since the 20th of May, has practically completed its contract, which was to be finished by October 1. Some of the employees are still at work here, doing odds and ends, but the work the company took to do is practically completed. About 16,000 feet of sewer have been put in by the company, and the work has been done in first class shape and with an ease and quickness that has been in favorable contrast to some of the other sewer building experiences of the past two years.

Mr. Petroski, who remains here to go to Moosup in a day or two to begin work on a sewer contract that the Petroski company has in that place, the work consisting of putting in a service in the village of the Aldrich manufacturing company.

Game Commissioner States Law. To set right those who have been in doubt about what the law allows, State Game Commissioner Frank O. Davis stated Monday afternoon that the open season for hunting rabbits begins on Friday, October 1, and that from now until November 24 they may be hunted with gun and trap. After November 24 and up to January 15 rabbits may be hunted with dog and trap, but without a gun. The time when a gun is not allowed in hunting rabbits is the time when the season for game birds is closed.

BLUE MONDAY FOR DEVIC.

Democratic Campaigner and His Wife Arrested for Non-Payment of Old Board Bill—Under Bonds of $500 Each.

Jean DeVic, who works at the state headquarters for the democratic party in New Haven, came home Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his family. Monday morning, a little after 7 o'clock, Constable W. J. Hastings and Attorney E. Z. Terry of New Haven arrested Mr. DeVic's apartment in the Kefauver block on Main street. Mrs. DeVic said that her husband was not at home, but he was in the bedroom, and both he and his wife were placed under arrest in an action instituted against them where they are charged with fraud. The suit was brought by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, owners of the Park Central in this city. Under the action of fraud the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. DeVic were taken to the court house for the purpose of being taken to the superior court to answer to the charge against them.

A number of years since Mr. and Mrs. DeVic boarded at the Park Central and their board bill, which, according to the plaintiffs, amounted to $200, has never been paid. Mr. DeVic gave the plaintiffs a chattel mortgage on some printing presses and machines and when he found that the plaintiffs were about to foreclose begged of them not to do so. Both he and his wife at the time told the plaintiffs they had a parcel of real estate in Comm. Mass., valued at $400 with but an encumbrance of $60 upon it. They agreed to transfer the title to this property to the plaintiffs, but never did so. An investigation disclosed that the property in question had no liens against it for more than it was worth.

The action is made returnable to the superior court for Windham county on the first Tuesday in November.

CHILD THROWN FROM CARRIAGE.

Exciting Runaway of Pair of Horses Owned by Mansfield Man.

Monday afternoon after 3 o'clock there was a lively runaway in the heart of the city that caused considerable excitement for a time on Railroad and Main streets, to say nothing of a few thrilling stunts on Church street.

The outfit, a two horse hitch, attached to a two-seated canopy top carriage, was left near the union station on Railroad street with a little girl about four years old alone in the carriage. The horses became frightened and started off up Railroad street, first colliding with a shoe maker's sign on the sidewalk on the right hand side of the street. The horses jammed through between the telegraph pole at the corner of Railroad and Main and the stone hitching post, where the carriage became fast, throwing the little girl out upon the pavement.

The horses cleared themselves and in so doing broke the double harness to pieces. One horse ran one way, and the other, said to be a notorious runaway, ran across Main street and crossed the sidewalk at the corner of the Murray building and then over upon the sidewalk on the right side of Church street.

Mr. Young's store, still on the sidewalk, he got tangled up with Mr. Young's bicycle, and threw it completely over the horse's back, and landed it in the street above A. D. Spelman's market on Church street. There were a couple of teams standing on the street at the time, but neither ran, while the frightened horse continued up the street for quite a distance.

Bystanders, who saw the little girl thrown from the carriage, ran to her assistance and carried her to a near by drug store and had her slight injuries dressed. The girl was bruised about one leg and cut and somewhat scratched on her face, but she was not seriously hurt.

Some persons arrived and in an excited manner tried to collect their belongings. One horse was soon secured, but it was more than half an hour before the other was brought back. The wife-fretful was damaged and the harness was so badly broken to pieces that no amount of attempts at patching it together would work satisfactorily.

At least a dozen different persons tried to assist the owner without success, until at last the horses were led away and the carriage left standing until some arrangements for its disposition could be made. The man who owned the rig lives, it is said, on a small place in the town of Mansfield, and is a Bohemian.
